

Introducing Computing and Online Safety

On Thursday 12th November, we held a morning where we introduced our Computing curriculum and spoke to people about Online safety. We had a tremendous turnout! A big thank you to everyone who came and we hope you found it informative.

The presentations from the morning are on the Computing section of the Highfield website.

