

We got some caterpillars. We enjoyed watching them grow bigger and were very excited when they went into their chrysalis. Eventually the butterflies emerged—the metamorphosis was complete! We then released them in the butterfly garden in the pond area.

