

Year 3 have been learning about the strength of different magnets. We have been investigating how many paperclips and pieces of paper each magnet can hold.

