

A day in the life of a Tudor child at Oakwell Hall

The children of 6F had a terrific day at Oakwell Hall where they enjoyed experiencing chores typical of those a Tudor child would have endured. We made God's eyes, pomanders, sewing, preparing food, cooking and using a quill to write with ink.

