

THE HIGHFIELDER!

FEB 2014

SPOTLESS SCHOOL ?

Today the whole school put on their litter gloves and took part in a clean-the-school event. It went great and the school now looks spotless. Please parents , your children will look up to you , so don't drop litter !

CHILD FRIENDLY LEEDS

As you know, all the editors write for Child Friendly Leeds. Recently we have been to East Leeds FM and have been on the radio. James interviewed the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of Leeds. Sophie and Jaya reported on Sports Personality of The Year. James and Rianna attended Child Friendly Leeds awards. We also had the chance for our reports to be published in The Yorkshire Evening Post.

FIRE DRILL REPORT

A couple of weeks ago we had a fire drill to help the younger children understand what to do if there is a fire alarm. All the children remained very calm and got out of school quickly and efficiently in 3 minutes 40 seconds. Well done everyone.

BUN DAY MONDAY

This half term it was Year 4's turn to bring in the buns. Thank you to all the children who brought buns; there was more than enough! Let's hope Year 3 do as well! We raised £184.50 for the WWF

SCHOOL COUNCIL REPORT

This term the School Council are entering a competition run by The Speaker of The House of Commons in London. They have decided to enter their project to support The WWF and are taking photographs of all the work we have done on our endangered animals in class.

FUNDRAISING ART PROJECT

The whole school has drawn pictures which can be turned into coasters, placemats, T Shirts, shopping bags, art prints or photo frames. We hope the pictures will raise lots of money.

SPORTS REPORT

Miss Elson's team is back in action this week. Unfortunately the next football match is postponed until after half term as Mr Brassil is ill. Good luck for your next match everyone.

HARRY'S WEATHER

It's going to be sunny, however there is going to be a chilly wind. It is slightly cloudy and there may be a possible shower (apart from snow!)

DOMINIC'S DILEMMA

For Valentine's Day I am making a cake. For every 32 g of sugar there are two eggs. If there are 112 g of sugar how many eggs are there?

Last time's answer:

Santa spent £4537.86

RIANNA'S RIDDLE

Three men were sat in a boat. It capsized but nobody got wet – How come?

Answers in the next edition

JAYA'S JOLLY JOKES

Why did the banana go out with the prune?

Because he couldn't find a date!!

Finally, we wish everyone a very happy half term!

James, Dominic, Jaya, Sophie and Rianna
