

THE HIGHFIELDER

MAY 2013

HIGHFIELD'S HATCH!!! 😊

Nine new arrivals are enjoying life in our reception classes. The chicks, as seen above, have hatched and are being cared for by reception children. Thomas, one of the Highfielders, nearly got pecked!!! Unfortunately the ducklings never hatched but the chicks are happy and healthy.

TEAM OF THE MONTH

Teams of the month at Highfield are...

The Tennis Team and The Gymnastics Team

because they both came second in their tournaments.

ARGHYA'S ARITHMETIC

Calculate the area of a triangle with a base of 7 and a height of 9

QUICK QUIZ

Reception: What sound do chicks make?

Year 1 What is the capital of India?

Year 2 When was the battle of Hastings?

Year 3 Are butterflies symmetrical on both sides?

Year 4 Which animal charity has a panda logo?

Year 5 Which Aztec city was the highest city in the world?

Year 6 Where is Marrick in the Yorkshire Dales?

JACK'S JOKES

Q: What do you get from a dizzy cow?

A: Milkshakes 😊

CALLUM'S BIRDS

The Wren is the second smallest bird in the UK 9-11cm .They feed on bugs and are difficult to spot.

This 25cm worm was discovered by Emma Bird and her friends. It's no wonder birds like coming to Highfield!

HARRY'S WEATHER

It's going to be cloudy with sunny spells.

SCHOOL COUNCIL REPORT

Our school has now got some new water fountains. This Bun day Monday we made £70.85 which will contribute towards the cost of them. In June the Highfielders and years 5&6 school council are going to London for a guided tour of the Houses of Parliament

AND FINALLY.....

HAPPY 13th BIRTHDAY TO THE WALKING BUS!!!!

The next Highfielder will be published in July 2013 so look out!

Written by Thomas Hawkins, Abigail Wolfe, Teagan Riches and Mia Ashmore.

Arghya's answer 31.5

