

03.09.2023 Whole School Assembly: Being a Highfielder

Thinking time whilst coming into assembly:

What does it mean to be a Highfielder?

The children gave some great feedback on what it means to them to be a Highfielder: kind, caring, hard working and resilient were just some of the great answers! We moved onto to then think about what the expectations of behaviour were at Highfield. Without hesitation, they answered:

I then asked the children to think of a positive example of being Ready, Respectful, Safe. As a school we came up with the following examples:

 Ready	 Respectful	 Safe
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Arrive at our line ontime• From the B of the BANG!• Try our best, even when it is difficult• Leave the class calmly	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Listen and speak politely• Manners• Single file in the corridors• Help others in need• Take pride in our environment	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Keep hands and feet to ourselves• Ask for adult help if we are worried• We recognise our feelings
