

Good Morning

Raise your hand if you have a question!

* The hardest aspect of fencing

* A lifetime of challenge

TODAY...

A Story

A Hero

A Great Big Message

My Sporting Hero...

Eddie Edwards

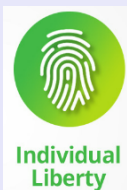

He never won anything.

People laughed at him.

WHY?

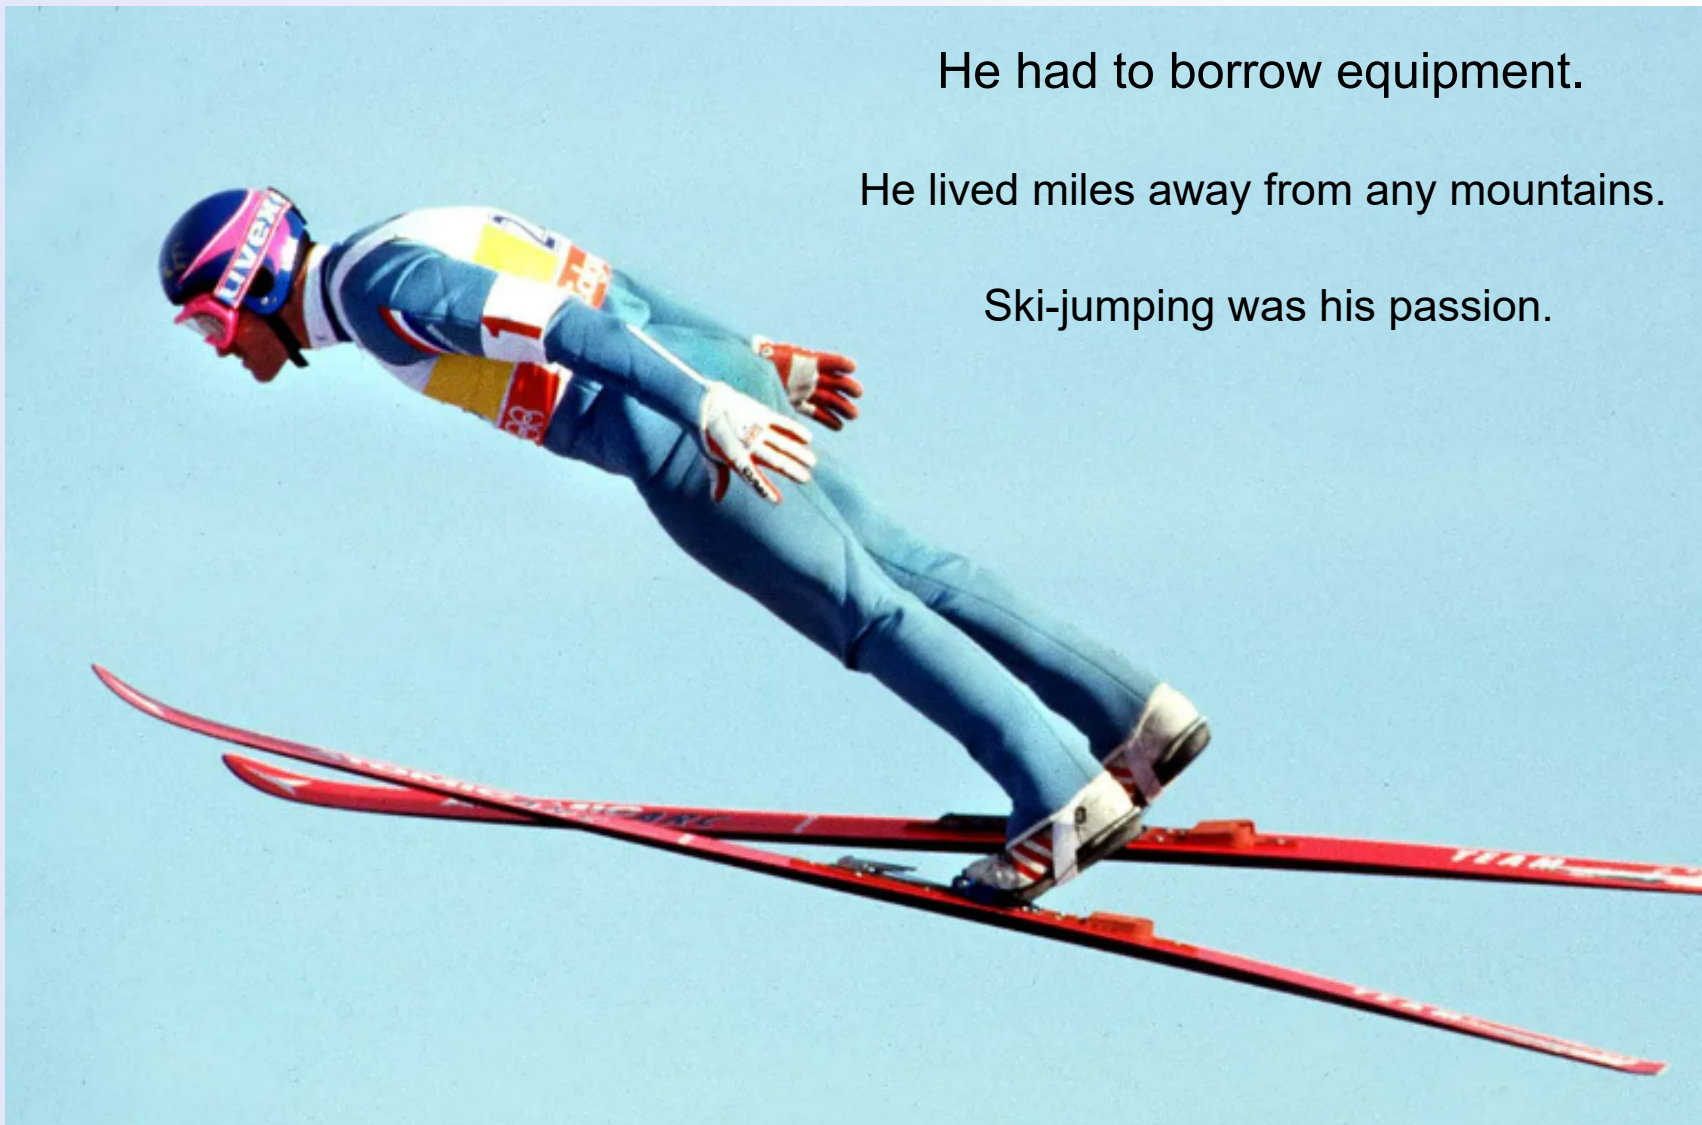

Eddie was a ski-jumper

He had to borrow equipment.

He lived miles away from any mountains.

Ski-jumping was his passion.

He usually finished last.

He was a figure of fun and was given the nickname Eddie
"the eagle" Edwards.

LET'S THINK...

THINK...

How easy it is when you're good at something...

YOU WIN
YOU GET PRAISE
YOU GET HELP
YOU GET SPONSORSHIP

Eddie wasn't very good.

He had to raise money for flights and equipment.

THINK...

The crowd are laughing at him.
He's staring down the barrel of a ramp of snow and ice that will catapult him a hundred feet into the sky.

Will his borrowed equipment be safe?
Will he have the skill to land without breaking his bones?
And his reward if he succeeds?...

SOME MIGHT THINK THIS FOOLISH

BUT ONLY IF YOU COMPARE

Maybe the best of humanity isn't just in those who always win.

Maybe it's in those who struggle and fall down and it's in those who take part.

Eddie teaches me that there will always be someone better than me.

Next time you are facing something hard, think of Eddie.

He's the only ski jumper I can name.

Enjoy your day

Find success in what you enjoy.

You don't always need to win.
